

Note Booking Pages

for

Gooney Bird Greene

by Lois Lowry

Title _____

Author _____

Illustrator _____

WHAT IS A "GOONEY BIRD"?

Real Name

What do they eat?

Can they fly?

Yes

No

What habitat do they live in?

Physical Characteristics

How big is their wingspan?

Listen carefully and you'll find out all about Gooney Birds!

How I Got My Name

Interview By: _____ Person Interviewed: _____

Who choose my name?

Did it take a long time to pick my name?

Was I named after someone special? If so, who and why?

Does my name have a special meaning? If so, what is it?

Where there any other names I could have had? If so, what were they?

What helped you decide that my name was for me?

Elements Of A Story

Main Character

A character that interacts with the main character, but is not the main focus of the story. (Also called the antagonist).

Secondary Character

When a future event or scene is inserted into a story before it actually occurs.

Suspense

To return to an event or scene in a story that has already taken place.

Flashback

The rest of the story centers around this character.
(Also called the protagonist).

Flash Forward

Used to capture the attention of the audience, it is the growing interest and excitement felt while awaiting a climax or resolution.

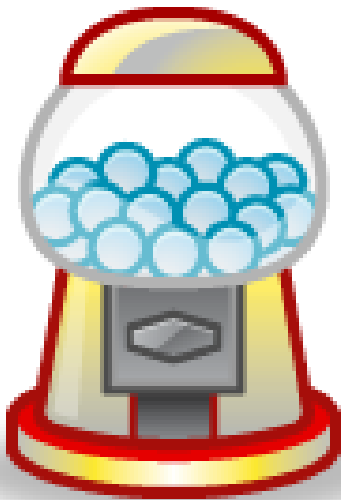

Gooney Bird Greene Gumball Math

What coin did Gooney Bird Greene use to buy her gumballs? _____

How much is that coin worth? _____

How much money did Gooney Bird Greene spend to get all of the gumballs out of the machine? _____

What was the cost of buying both earrings? _____

How much more did Gooney Bird pay to get the earrings out of the machine?

Gooney Bird Greene

By Lois Lowry

Setting

Main Character

Secondary Character

Plot

Theme

